Kids' Music Adventure (KMA) Fact Sheet

Description:

Kids' Music Adventure is a fun, interactive, family-oriented enclave where children will experience and enjoy the gift of music. KMA is designed to introduce and perhaps inspire a new passion for music in young children. With a wide variety of activities throughout the weekend, children will be captivated by music, uniquely expressed in performances, by diverse artists, participate in hands-on workshops and fun activities; providing a culturally rich experience for the whole family.

Event Details:

- Going into its sixth year, the successful and engaging Kids' Music Adventure (KMA) is designed to interactively expose children (geared for children, ages 5-12) to live music and instruments, perhaps for the first time.
- KMA is FREE.
- KMA is located in the Fort Collins Museum Courtyard and open from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, August 13 and Sunday, August 14.
- KMA hosts an instrument petting zoo, six kid-friendly special performances suited for kids of all ages and hands-on music workshops.
- Discover the science of sound through interactive, hands-on experiments with The Little Shop of Physics (Saturday only).
- Create your own instruments with Discovery Science Center.
- Toddlers (ages 1-3) can enjoy Philomusica, where music and piano education is the focus.
- With the Boys and Girls Clubs of Larimer County, kids can create their own music and burn it onto a CD to take home with them.
- Studio K interactive musical workshop

- Expanded Paparazzi Tent Experience
 - HUGE tent with zig-zag red carpet inside
 - Get your rockin' hair done
 - Dress up in fun hats, boas and other accessories
 - Get your picture taken "on stage" rocking out with instruments provided
 - E-mail address and info will be taken with your picture and KMA will send the picture to your family for FREE
- All children interested in enjoying KMA must be accompanied by a parent or guardian throughout the two-day KMA event.
